

The Mysterious Murder of JFK mistress Mary Pinchot Meyer

Instructor: Tom Brawner

Mary Pinchot Meyer, an artist and well-connected socialite, was shot at close range and killed in broad daylight on Monday, October 12, 1964, during her daily walk along the C&O Canal in Georgetown, Washington, DC. Was her murder the tragic result of her resisting an attempted sexual assault by a suspicious man found near the scene? Or was the murder more complicated, perhaps associated with her former marriage to a high-ranking CIA official or her ongoing affair with President John F. Kennedy? We will address the facts, myths, and mysteries associated with this unsolved murder.

Coffee Chats and Happy Hour Chats

We are adding new options to get together around the virtual table, as if we are gathering on a class day. No instructor, but a time to learn from each other, to chat, to catch up and perhaps to talk around a hot topic.

If you would like to join us, just grab your coffee and jump onto zoom or pour a cocktail or iced tea on your deck and get social with some of us. This would be a good time to contact the Adventure friends you miss seeing and ask them to register to join us.

The launch of SCG virtual classes began with ShepNet topics for the month of May; then we added our spring classes of Adventures In Learning during the month of June, with strong interest, great teachers and participation from local seniors and a few guests. It has been a great learning experience for all of us as we developed new options to stay informed and connected. SCG can report that over 1,000 hours of lifelong learning was absorbed by you and other seniors who choose an independent life of purpose.

We are not charging for ALL nor ShepNet classes at this time, but with continuation of the "sheltering at home" directives, we do need to plan the new-way-forward for classes activities and services. Please consider a donation to the Shepherd's Center of Greensboro to support unique learning opportunities and services for our community. This link takes you to our website for online or mail-in options that keep us strong: <http://www.shepctr.org/ways-to-support-scg/>

Thank you for your interest and we'll see you in the August summer classes!
